Achieving More Together as God's Children

School News:

The Whole School had a fantastic time last Thursday when we were visited by a professional production team who performed the classic 'Dick Whittington'. The noise from our hall was deafening as the children screamed and whooped along with the cast. The finale being Miss Clarey and Miss Ramage in a dance-off! Loads of fun!!

On last Friday morning we had a performance of the WW1Time Capsule - an in-school theatre production focusing on WW1 facts. We all found it really .
